1. There are no planes at the Japanese-constructed airfield near Changchun. Two other fields near Changchun are used exclusively by Soviet-piloted MIG planes. 1 The fields are strictly guarded.

25X1

2. There are approximately 60 conventional training planes at Kirin Airfield, which is a branch of the Mukden air school. North Korean air cadets are undergoing training at this field.

3. The Mukden aircraft assembly plant which was originally established by the Japanese will soon start delivering completed jet aircrafts to the Chinese Communist Air Force. 2 The plant has many Soviet and Japanese technicians.
